

Our top priority is to get each one of our passengers to their destinations as safely and smoothly as possible.

To do this, we must work together to understand the differences between the role of our drivers and the role of a certified personal care attendant (PCA). Because knowing the difference can make all the difference.

Must maintain a line of sight with the bus at all times

Can help you get on and off the bus

Can physically lift passengers

Can carry bags or other personal belongings

Can escort you to a building's ground-level entrance (if a line of sight with the bus is maintained)

Can help you once inside the building
