

HOP ON THE BUS TO INDEPENDENCE

Learn to Use Public Transportation for Safe and Independent Travel

Using public transportation is an essential skill that people with disabilities need in order to live and work in the community. Pace Suburban Bus has teamed up with jjslist.com to offer a free, hands-on, interactive workshop to help participants build this skill. We bring the Workshop to you!

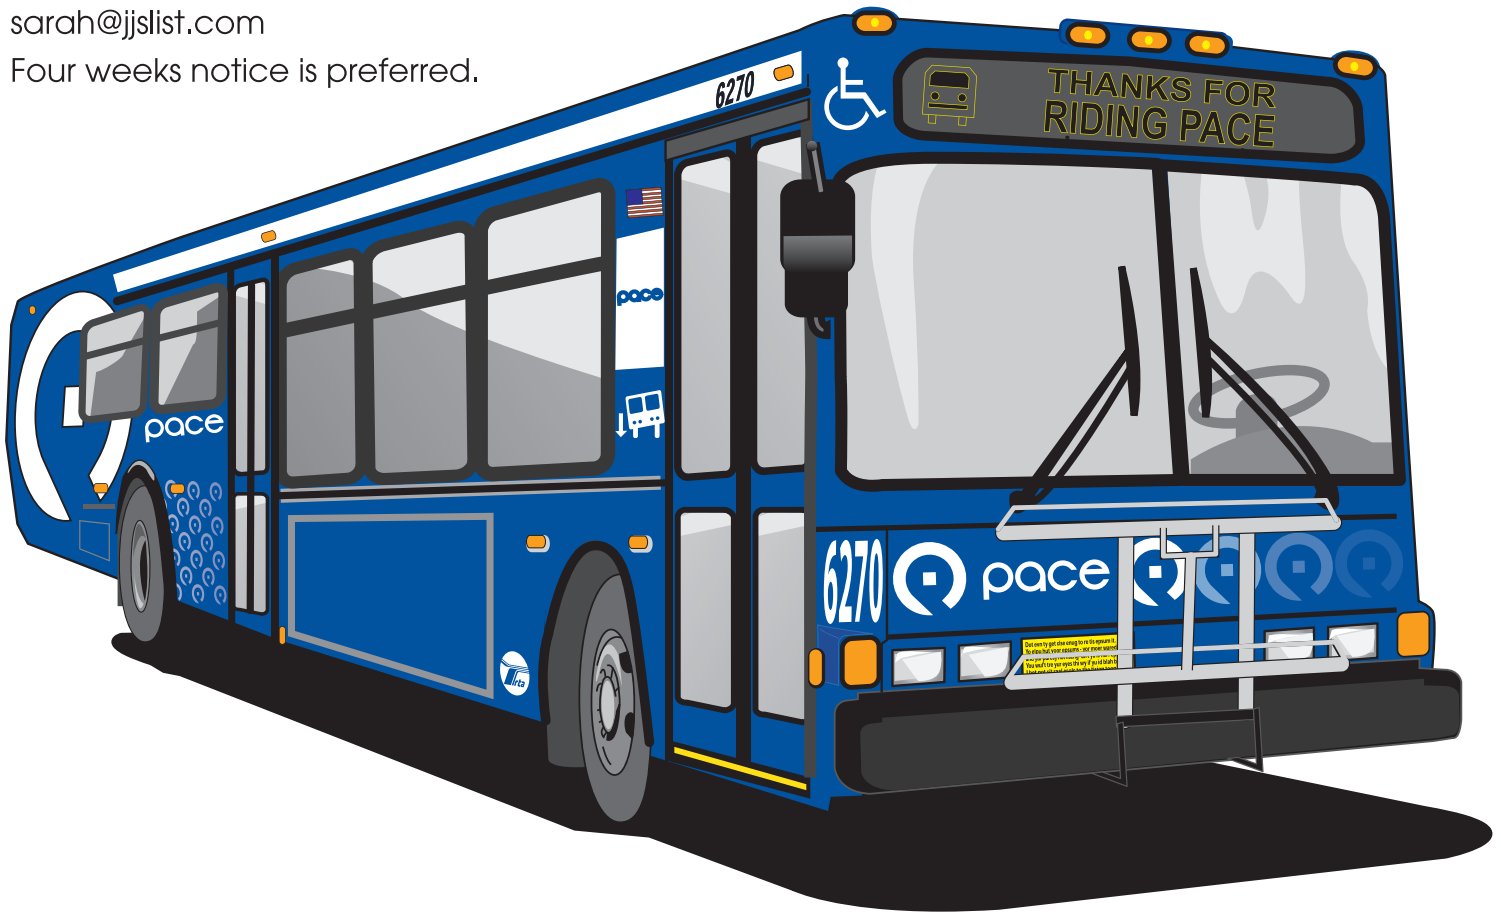

To schedule your Hop on the Bus to Independence Workshop, please contact:

Four weeks notice is preferred.

What happens during the 90-minute Hop on the Bus Workshop?

The jjslist.com Training Team works with participants to learn the rtachicago.com on-line trip planner.

Pace Suburban Bus staff takes participants on a real Pace bus to explore how it works and what participants need to know.

An RTA representative will review the physical accessibility bus features.

Who can participate?

Any public or private school, agency or service provider that works with individuals with disabilities ages 14 and older within the six-county area served by Pace Suburban Bus (Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, Will).

What's required?

A minimum of 8 participants with disabilities plus staff, supporters and/or family members;

Completion of a pre and post survey by staff and/or participants;

Availability of a classroom with Internet access at your site;

Outside space to park a Pace bus at your site.
